Re: CRB Complaint #09-004

Dear Ms. Parker:

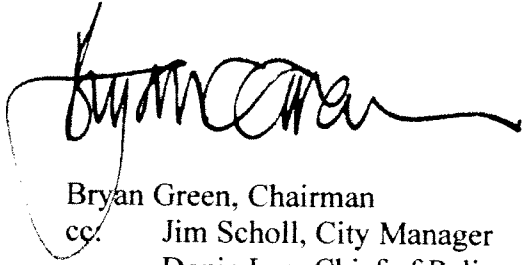

On May 13, 2009, the Citizen Review Board completed their review of your complaint filed on or about February 23, 2009. Your complaint alleged false arrest and excessive force against Officer Daniel Jones. The Citizen Review Board carefully weighed all of the evidence and statements and was unable to substantiate your allegations and determined your complaint to be Unfounded. The Board felt that reasonable force was used to remove you from your subject vehicle and there was sufficient evidence for probable cause for your arrest.

The Board was mindful that a series of very unfortunate events culminated in your inability to retrieve your van, which we ascertained has not been auctioned and remains at the towing yard.

The Board were of the opinion that whilst the Police did not err in their actions, the justice system itself needs to be improved to try to assist in situations such as yours and seek ways to avoid creating homelessness.

Thank you for your assistance with the review process. This complaint review is now CLOSED.

Respectfully,
